OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

MONDAY - 10 AUGUST 1959

1. Advised Jim Hyde, Bureau of the Budget, in response to his query, that the Agency did not wish an opportunity to comment on the Great White Fleet proposal since basically it is an overt matter and we understood the Executive Departments generally were opposed. This was satisfactory to Hyde. (This type of response had been agreed upon with Foster Collins.)

3. The Director's office advised that Senator Henry M. Jackson had called setting a time of 8:45 a.m. on Thursday for the Senator to see the Director.

4. Senator Henry M. Jackson telephoned requesting that I see him some time tomorrow. He indicated this had to do with previous discussions about a trip to Russia.
